

THE LABOR CAMP

(From the picture): "April 1941. My mother had brought me to work for a farmer in Goscieradow, next to the labor camp. As I was spreading manure, I heard someone calling my name. I looked up to see my cousin Moishe. I was so sad and wanted to go home to tell my mother."

Embroidery and fabric collage, 1994